

AWC Workers' Comp Retro Program Non-City Membership

It is the mission of the Association of Washington Cities Workers' Compensation Retrospective Rating Program (AWC Retro) to provide its members:

- Access to the benefits of retrospective rating allowed under rules of the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries (L&I)
- Management of all L&I claims
- Proactive risk management
- Provide a forum for innovative techniques in claim reduction

It is the goal of the AWC Retro program:

- For all members to attain a .75 experience rating from L&I
- To attain rate stability and financial certainty to the extent possible under the L&I rating system

To assist in meeting the mission and achieving the goal of AWC Retro, the non-city member policy was approved by the AWC Executive Committee of the Board of Directors on November 20, 2008. The Executive Committee has the authority to change these criteria at any time.

Non-city entity entrance criteria

The Non-City Entity Entrance Criteria consists of the 3 sections listed below. The criteria listed in each section must be met in order for the non-city to be considered for entrance to the AWC Retro program.

- 1. Criteria that must be met for an entity to apply. Additional factors that the AWC Executive Committee may consider when reviewing new applicants.
- 2. Criteria that must be met by the non-city entity once the Executive Committee approves its membership application.
- 3. Financial impacts to the non-city entity.
